

DOING ACADEMIC STUFF
BUILDS YOUR CV

GERT STULP

*you need to put more armour-plate where the holes aren't because that's where the holes were
on the airplanes that didn't return*

Abraham Wald, 1942

*you need to put more armour-plate where the
holes aren't because that's where the holes were
on the airplanes that didn't return*

Abraham Wald, 1942

college drop-out!

“work tirelessly”

DON'T LISTEN TO ANYTHING I SAY

5 THINGS THAT WERE IMPORTANT FOR MY CV

I think...

I

SCIENTIFIC KARMA

liking
R

helping colleagues

R
expertise

invited
workshops

R in teaching

gertstulp.com

book
reviews

publications

scientific collaborations

consortia/
grants

II

FINISH STUFF

REMEMBER:

intelligence ≠ quantity ≠ quality

III

BE KIND, GIVE, ASK

Evolutionary perspectives on human height variation
G Stulp, L Barrett
Biological Reviews 91 (1), 206-234

145

2016

university of groningen

young academy
groningen

IV

INTERDISCIPLINARITY

PROS

FUN

CONS

NOT 'TRUE' EXPERT
GRANT SUCCESS(?)

V

ORGANISE & COORDINATE

THE END

BUT, TWO MORE THINGS

REJECTION IS INEVITABLE

LEAVING ACADEMIA
IS NOT FAILURE

for every successful grant there are 5 failed ones
for every prize there are 10 nominations
for every accepted manuscript there are 3 rejections
for every position there are 5 failed applications

DOING ACADEMIC STUFF
BUILDS YOUR CV

GERT STULP

WORK LIKE HELL

don't forget, it's just a job and there are other nicer jobs

WORKING SMARTER, NOT HARDER

finish stuff

IF YOU DO SOMETHING YOU LOVE YOU NEVER WORK A DAY IN YOUR LIFE

but more accurate to me than "hell"

